

Leadership Contestant's Statement of Unpaid Claims and Loans 18 or 36 Months after Contest Day (EC 20002) – Instructions

When to use this form

The financial agent for a leadership contestant must submit this form to Elections Canada if unpaid amounts recorded in the contestant's campaign return are still unpaid 18 months or 36 months after contest day.

The first update must be submitted no later than 19 months after contest day, covering unpaid claims and loans as of 18 months after contest day. The second update must be submitted no later than 37 months after contest day, covering unpaid claims and loans as of 36 months after contest day.

Note that when a claim or loan is paid in full, the financial agent must submit an amended Leadership Contestant's Campaign Return (EC 20192) showing the payments and the sources of funds for the payments within 30 days after making the final payment.

Tips for completing this form

Part 1

Declaration:

The declaration attesting to the completeness and accuracy of the return must be signed and dated by the financial agent. The financial agent must be the agent in Elections Canada's registry at the time of signing.

Part 2

Unpaid claims and loans:

Detail all unpaid claims and loans from Part 4 of the Leadership Contestant's Campaign Return (EC 20192) that remain unpaid.
