

Leadership Contestant's Interim Campaign Return (EC 20193) – Instructions

When to use this form

The financial agent for a leadership contestant must submit this form if contributions totalling more than $10,000 are accepted or leadership campaign expenses, not including transfers to affiliated political entities, totalling more than $10,000 are incurred.

The first interim return covers the period from the first day of the contest to four weeks before contest day. This form must be submitted within one week after the end of the reporting period.

The second interim return covers the period from the day after the previous reporting period to one week before contest day. This form must be submitted no later than two days before contest day.

If the $10,000 threshold is reached after the first reporting period, only one interim return is required, but it must cover the whole period from the first day of the contest to one week before contest day. This form must be submitted no later than two days before contest day.

Tips for completing this form

Part 1

Declaration:

The declaration must be signed by both the contestant and the financial agent. The financial agent must be the agent in Elections Canada's registry at the time of signing.

Part 2a

List all monetary and non-monetary contributions received by the campaign.

For contributors whose total monetary and non-monetary contributions are greater than $200, the full name and address must be recorded.

For contributions from contributors whose total monetary and non-monetary contributions are $200 or less, on the last page used for Part 2a, record the grand total of monetary and non-monetary contributions, along with the total number of contributors.

For anonymous contributions of $20 or less, on the last page used for Part 2a, record the grand total of monetary and non-monetary contributions, along with the total approximate number of anonymous contributors.

Part 2b

For all directed contributors, the full name and address must be recorded.

For all directed contributions, the total contribution amount received by the party, the amount directed and the amount transferred from the party must be recorded.

Part 2c

Provide a separate Part 2c for each loan.

Loan details:

If there is more than one loan to the campaign, enter a loan number to identify the loan.

For overdrafts, enter the maximum amount overdrawn.

If a line of credit is used, the treatment will differ depending on whether the funds were deposited into the campaign bank account or used to pay suppliers directly:

- If the funds from the line of credit were transferred into the campaign bank account, the sum of all transfers will be reported as a line of credit.
- If campaign expenses were paid directly to the supplier from the line of credit, the maximum amount drawn from the line of credit will be reported as an overdraft.

Variable interest rate:

If the interest rate is variable, enter the variable rate. For example, if a variable interest rate is 2% above prime, enter "+2".

Balance of loan as of December 31:

Enter the outstanding balance at December 31 of each year. For example, if the campaign borrowed money in October 2017 for a leadership contest that occurred in the fall of 2018, you would report the balance of the loan as of December 2017 and December 2018.

Part 2d

Enter all contributions returned to contributors or remitted to the Chief Electoral Officer (CEO). For non-monetary contributions that were used, the commercial value of the contributed property or service must be remitted to the CEO, payable to the Receiver General for Canada.

Part 2e

A leadership contestant can receive a non-monetary transfer from either the registered party or an affiliated registered association. If the transfer is from a registered association, enter their ED code. For a list of ED codes, refer to Annex I.

Part 3:

A leadership contestant can send monetary transfers to the registered party or an affiliated registered association. If the transfer is to a registered association, enter their ED code. For a list of ED codes, refer to Annex I.
